SUMMARY

I'm a passionate Frontend Developer studying at Future Games Education in Stockholm, with a previous academic background in Computer Science. I specialize in building responsive and accessible interfaces using React.js, Next.js, JavaScript, and Tailwind CSS. I also have knowledge of backend fundamentals with Node.js and Express.js, and I work confidently with GitHub, REST APIs, and Agile practices. By combining creativity with functionality, I focus on delivering seamless, user-centered digital experiences while continuously exploring new UI/UX trends.
